

Time and Genitive expressions

1. Tomorrow morning we'll drive to Greenfield.
2. The bus arrived a couple of minutes ago.
3. I have classes in the afternoons.
4. We're going to the movies this evening.
5. I was born in 1961.
6. After [the] school I play tennis.
7. I've been studying German since December.
8. Herr Lemon stayed two weeks in Berlin.
9. Every day we have to sit here for 105 minutes.
10. I've been living in Warwick for two years.
11. They're coming by at half past six.
12. That's my girlfriend's house. Her brother's wife lives over there.
13. Can you tell me his uncle's address?
14. My boyfriend's mother lived in Berlin during the war [r Krieg].
15. In spite of his grades [e Note, -n] Mr. Lemon became a teacher.